1. Physical dependence is not the same as addiction (substance dependence syndrome)

2. Tolerance and physical dependence are both part of the body's adjustment to the presence of drug.

3. `Addiction' rarely results from misuse of prescribed medication.

4. It is rare for physical pain to be due to a psychological problem.